If securities held in your account are restricted for sale under your company's stock plan rules, Fidelity will use the FIFO method for lots available for sale.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

If you incur a realized loss on a security and you repurchase additional shares of the same security 30 days before or after the sale, the repurchase may result in the loss being deferred under the "wash sale" provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. In the event of a wash sale, Fidelity may adjust the Acquisition Date of the newly acquired securities to include the holding period of the disallowed loss. Purchases include shares acquired through reinvested dividends. Other transactions may result in loss deferrals including "straddles" and certain option strategies. You should consult your tax advisor for additional information.

c - Cost basis information has been provided by you; therefore we cannot verify the accuracy of this information.

W - Adjusted due to previous wash sale disallowed loss.

W - You have chosen to view Unadjusted Cost Basis information. Cost basis information has not been adjusted to reflect the disallowed loss.

m - This position has been marked to the market. The cost basis and acquisition date were adjusted to reflect the market value of the security on December 31 of the previous year. See the IRS Publication 550 for more information about the IRC Mark to Market requirement for Section 1256 Contracts.

d - Adjusted cost basis reflects any adjustments due to original issue discount, premium, or acquisition premium, market discount (including any year-to-date amount). It assumes such amounts were amortized or accrued for tax purposes from the acquisition date through current date for open positions and through disposition date for closed positions. Premium amortization was calculated using the yield-to-maturity method. Acquisition premium was calculated using the reliable accrual method. Any market discount accretion for this position was calculated using the constant yield method unless a different fixed income election has been made and, if applicable, recognized upon disposition. Gain/loss displayed for this position is calculated using the cost basis adjustments as described above. The adjusted cost basis may not reflect all adjustments necessary for tax reporting purposes. Refer to IRS Publication 550, Investment Income and Expenses, for additional information.

Amortization, accretion, and similar adjustments to cost basis are not provided for short-term instruments and unit investment trusts. For fixed income securities subject to paydowns (early repayment of principal), cost basis is adjusted using a method that takes paydowns into account and calculates original issue discount, premium, and acquisition premium using a constant yield method.

NOTICE OF DEFICIENT/INELIGIBLE CLAIM SUBMISSION

Dear Claimant:

We received and processed the Proof of Claim Form ("Claim" or "Claim Form") you submitted in the above-referenced securities litigation settlement. We have determined based on our review of your Claim, that the Claim is deficient or ineligible for the reason(s) identified below. In order to resolve the deficiencies, you must submit a written response with any required documentation as specified below postmarked no later than the response due date printed at the top of this notice. Please include a copy of this notice with your response. If you fail to respond by the response due date set forth above, or if your response fails to cure the condition(s) identified below, this Claim will be rejected to the extent that those conditions remain uncured. This is the only notice you will receive with respect to this Claim.

Reason for deficiency/ineligibility (Please see below for explanation):

CLAIM DOES NOT CALCULATE TO A RECOGNIZED LOSS UNDER THE PLAN OF ALLOCATION

Explanation of Claim Deficiency/Ineligibility:

CLAIM DOES NOT CALCULATE TO A RECOGNIZED LOSS UNDER THE PLAN OF ALLOCATION

In accordance with the Plan of Allocation set forth in the Notice, the Claim referenced above does not calculate to a Recognized Claim and is, therefore, ineligible to receive a payment from the Net Settlement Fund.

How To Fix:

You can resolve this condition of ineligibility only by submitting additional purchase transactions of Ubiquiti Common Stock, Ubiquiti Call Options or sold Ubiquiti Put Options during the Class Period, i.e., from May 9, 2013 through February 19, 2018, inclusive, that were not previously reflected in your Claim. You must also support any additional transactions with acceptable documentation.

Acceptable documentation includes securities broker's confirmation slips, month- and year-end account statements or similar documentation (self-generated documents are not acceptable).

Please note, even if you cure the noted deficiencies, your Claim must then calculate to a Recognized Claim under the Plan of Allocation in order to be included in the list of eligible Claims presented to the Court for approval. If you disagree with the conditions identified in this notice, you may contact us for assistance and/or request Court review of our administrative determination regarding your Claim.

To request Court review, you must send a letter to the Claims Administrator at the address indicated above no later than the response deadline set forth above. Your letter, which must be signed, must (1) specifically state that you “request that the Court review the full or partial rejection of your Claim”; (2) state your argument(s) for why you are contesting the full or partial rejection of the Claim; and (3) include any and all documentation supporting your arguments. A copy of this letter must be included with your request for Court review. PLEASE NOTE: COURT REVIEW SHOULD ONLY BE SOUGHT IF YOU DISAGREE WITH THE CLAIMS ADMINISTRATOR’S DETERMINATION REGARDING YOUR CLAIM.

If you have any questions about this notice or any of the noted deficiencies, or if you want to confirm the status of your Claim after you submit a response to this notice, please contact us at the telephone number or email address noted above.

Sincerely,

JND Legal Administration

Dear Claims Administrator,

I request that the Court review the full or partial rejection of my Claim.

The claim does calculate to a recognized loss under the plan of allocation. Please see the supporting documentation provided with the original claim that includes account statements of transactions.

The Recognized Loss Calculation is provided below:

If a Recognized Loss amount is calculated to be a negative number for a particular transaction, that Recognized Loss shall be set to zero.

Common Stock Recognized Loss Calculations: For each share of Ubiquiti Common Stock purchased or otherwise acquired during the Settlement Class Period (i.e., May 9, 2013 through February 19, 2018, inclusive), the Recognized Loss per share shall be calculated as follows:

- i. For each share of Ubiquiti Common Stock purchased during the period May 9, 2013 through September 17, 2017, inclusive,
 - that was sold prior to September 18, 2017, the Recognized Loss per share is $0.

My Recognized Loss amount is calculated to be a negative number and the Recognized Loss was set to zero. This calculates to a recognized loss under the plan of allocation.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Mark Belanger

We received your court review request for the Ubiquiti Networks, Inc. Securities Litigation and have been attempting to reach you by phone to discuss.

Your claim was calculated correctly against the Plan of Allocation which determines Recognized Losses. This is not to be confused with a Market Loss. The calculation of Recognized Loss revolves around the dates of your transactions. Page 11 explains the formula used for determining a Recognized Loss.

Because you sold all of your shares prior to September 18, 2017, the Recognized Loss per share is $0 and as such we will be withdrawing your request for Court Review.

Please reply that the email has been received.

Regards,

Claims Administrator (JV)
